

Department of State Development Overseas Travel Achievements Report

PROJECT NUMBER: 007

Name	Richard Heathcote
Position	Director, Carrick Hill
Phone number
Purpose of travel	To further research for exhibition & Carrick Hill's collection & carry out filming for the Stanley Spencer documentary.
Benefits of the trip	Tate Britain Gallery provided material for both publication and for the public program for the Stanley Spencer project at Carrick Hill. Catherine Hunter Productions captured footage of the Stanley Spencer Gallery and the environs of Cookham to enrich the film narrative and reveal the Adelaide/ Spencer connections.
Achievement against benefits	2016 celebrations for the 30 th Anniversary of Carrick Hill being officially opened to the public received on going support from the Stanley Spencer Gallery as a cultural partner. This has extended value both commercially and culturally not anticipated originally.
